Sonata

Serene symphony Fascinating encounter between the elegant and the subtle in white body, in an ode to the natural. In a fascinating encounter between the elegant and the subtle, the Sonata collection emerges as an ode to the natural. With a delicate white body aesthetic, this series of tiles captures the essence of calm and serenity in each ceramic design. Sonata presents a smooth texture, full of nuances, inspired by authentic stones such as limestone and sandstone where each tile reflects the history of landscapes sculpted by millennia of tranquillity. The collection is woven with a serene background movement with authenticity piece by piece. The result is a visual symphony that transports you to peaceful and serene places. Two decorative pieces complement the collection, Deko Sonata, 30x90 tiles in the base tones of the original collection, on which bamboo leaves are projected as plant shadows in a balanced dynamism and Suite Balance, also with the original tonal base, with the pieces raked by fine parallel lines that add a subtle touch of movement, perfectly harmonised with the whole. The Balance series is the ideal floor covering to achieve stylistic and chromatic harmony with the Sonata wall covering, creating an integral solution for the home.
